MEN CALLED FOR BORDER SERVICE

Entire National Guard Ordered Out.

ABOUT 100,000 MEN EXPECTED

To Answer Summons—President Issues Orders After Conference With War Officials.

INVASION NOT NOW INTENDED

Washington, June 18.—Virtually the entire mobile strength of the National Guard of all States and the District of Columbia was ordered mustered into the Federal service to-night by President Wilson. About 100,000 men are expected to respond to the call. They will be mobilized immediately for such service on the Mexican border as may later be assigned to them.

Gen. Frederick Funston, commanding the border forces, will designate the time and place for movements of guardsmen to the international line as the occasion shall require.

In announcing the orders, Secretary Baker said the State forces would be employed only to guard the border and that no additional troop movements into Mexico were contemplated except in pursuit of raiders.

Simultaneously with the National Guard call, Secretary Daniels, of the Navy Department, ordered additional war vessels to Mexican waters on both coasts to safeguard American lives.

Within the last two weeks tension has been increasing steadily. The crisis presented by Gen. Carranza's note demanding the recall of Gen. Pershing's expeditionary force has been followed by a virtual ultimatum served on the American officer by Gen. Trevino, the Mexican commander in Chihuahua.

Mobilization of the national guardsmen to support Gen. Funston's line will pave the way for releasing some 30,000 regulars for immediate service in Mexico in the event of open hostilities with the Carranza Government. The guardsmen themselves could not be used beyond the line without authority of Congress and until they had volunteered for that duty, as they are called out under the old militia law. The new law which would make them available for any duty under the Federal Government goes into effect July 1.

The entire mobile regular army in the United States, several provisional regiments of regular coast artillery serving as infantry and the National Guard of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona now are on the border or in Mexico. Definite figures have never been made public, but it is understood Gen. Funston has about 40,000 regulars and probably 5,000 or more guardsmen of whom 10,000 regulars are with Gen. Pershing or scattered along his line of communications from Nacajuapa, Mexico, to Columbus, N. M.

Telegrams calling for the militia were sent to the Governors of all States, except the three whose guardsmen already have been mustered in, after an all-day conference at the War Department, attended by Secretary Baker, Maj. Gen. Scott, Chief of the Mobile Army, and Brig. Gen. Mills, Chief of the Militia Division. General Staff Brig. Gen. McCombs, president of the Army War College, also was consulted.

Kentucky Boys Going.

Frankfort, Ky., June 18.—The entire Kentucky National Guard, three regiments of infantry, field hospital, ambulance company and signal corps have been ordered mobilized by President Wilson.

News of the probable call apparently reached throughout the State, for telegrams and telephone messages began to come into Gen. Ellis, asking for information and requesting enlistment blanks. First Regiment officers at Louisville asked for 1,000 blanks.

If the guard is required to mobilize with the peace strength of sixty-five men, most of the companies will have to be recruited up to that strength, as forty has been the minimum heretofore. The guard has not been reorganized under the new regulations, which probably will be done at the mobilization camp when they will be mustered into the Federal service.

Hartford Boys Called.

Lieut. Clarence B. Shown, of Company H, Hartford's contingent of the Kentucky National Guard, received the following telegram Monday from Capt. J. M. DeWeese, dated at Louisville:

"Call any minute—65 men. Get busy. Meet Tuesday."

The following is the roster of Company H, our local militia:

Capt. James M. DeWeese, First Lieut. Clarence B. Shown, Sergeants Wm. C. Liles, Andrew K. Anderson, Walter D. Gray, Estill L. Barnett, Marvin Hoover; Corporals Charlie M. Hawkins, Ben W. Blair, Charles F. Leisure, Forrest Hudson, Otis Clark; Cook, Letcher D. Bennett; Musician, Kit Logsdon; Privates Ira Allen, Pirtle Arnold, Haden Brown, Rosco S. Carson, Otis Colburn, James Daffron, Hobart P. Daugherty, John W. Ferguson, Chester D. Foster, Howard Glenn, John J. Glenn, Ollie Gray, Tom J. Hester, Wm. B. Holbrook, Lyman Hunt, Lum S. Iglesias, Charles W. Johnson, Rollie Johnson, Gilmore Keown, Charles King, Arvin Leisure, Wm. M. Logsdon, Oscar L. McDaniel, Cleo C. Miller, Arthur Minton, Albert Morris, Herman Morris, Pete Norman, Rowan Raley, Fletcher Owen, Alva Peach, Everette Peach, Jas. E. Peach, Alton Paris, Wava St. Clair, Shelby Stevens, Charles H. Tanner, Willie Wakeland, Omar T. Wallace, Leslie White, Stoy H. White, Ben H. Whitehouse, Mose Wilson, Edmund R. Wimsatt, Willis Allen, Alva C. Chandler, Clarence M. Gray, Nicholas B. Hazelrig, Charles B. Hurt, Eura W. Jones, Columbus W. Vineyard, Claude Duke, Jesse Harris.

Recruits are coming into the local armory from all parts of the country. It is understood that the service of the guardsmen will be voluntary on their part after they have complied with the orders of the Government to assemble at the armory. From present indications at least 8 out of every ten will volunteer for the Federal service. The Company will probably go into camp at Hartford for four or five days, during which time they expect to be recruited to the war limit, after which they will entrain for the State mobilization camp, either at Lexington or Fort Thomas, the latter opposite Cincinnati, O.

WAR WITH MEXICO

Hinges On Reception Of Note From Wilson Flatly Refusing Carranza's Demands.

Washington, June 19.—Upon Gen. Carranza's reception of a stern refusal to heed his demands for recall of American troops from Mexico, hinges the question of a Mexican war, in the opinion of President Wilson's close advisers. They were prepared for the possibility of open hostilities after the note, which will be sent forward to-morrow, has reached Carranza's hands.

While the diplomatic steps were in progress to-day the nation was stirring throughout its width and breadth with the movement of national guardsmen mobilizing to guard the border. At least 100,000, and possibly a far greater number, were preparing for active service under President Wilson's call. For the present their mission will be purely one of defense, but should war come they will be ready also for that. No marching orders for the new forces had gone out to-night. They will not be assigned for border duty until mustered into the Federal service.

Even when mobilization is completed only such units will be ordered South as Gen. Funston desires to fill the gaps in his 1,800-mile garrison. The remainder will rest on their arms at the State mobilization camps for the present, awaiting the turn of events.

Propose Increase Of Widows Pension.

Washington, June 19.—Pensions of not less than $20 a month for all Civil War widows would be provided by a bill passed to-day by the House. Aggregate expenditures of $9,000,000 are contemplated. The bill would restore to their former pensionable status widows of Civil War soldiers dropped because of remarriage, but now divorced or again widowed.

WILSON AND MARSHALL ARE NAMED AT ST. LOUIS TO LEAD DEMOCRATS

The Great Leaders Of Democracy Were Nominated By Acclamation.

HON. WILLIAM J. BRYAN LINES UP WITH THE OTHER LEADERS

President Wilson and Vice President Marshall were nominated by acclamation Thursday night by the Democratic national convention at St. Louis, the ticket being completed four minutes before Friday.

There was never any doubt of President Wilson's nomination, but there was a possibility that some Vice Presidential booms might be brought out in opposition to Vice President Marshall. They melted away, however, when the convention got in session, and as soon as the President's nomination had been made by a roaring acclamation, Senator Kern, cast aside his long prepared speech and simply declared:

"I nominate Thomas Riley Marshall, of Indiana, for Vice President." To the President's nomination there was only one dissenting vote, Robert Emmett Burke, of Illinois, who came to the convention announcing he was opposed to the President. His vote technically made the President's nomination 1091 to 1.

The convention was called to order at 9:15 o'clock by Chairman James. The large building was packed from pit to dome, every available seat being taken, and thousands standing. The announcement was made that the convention would not adjourn until all nominations had been made and all business before the convention disposed of.

Senator Thompson, of Kansas, moved the suspension of the rules to permit William Jennings Bryan to address the convention. The motion carried, and Mr. Bryan was escorted to the stand. He was given a tremendous ovation by the delegates and the spectators. He made a very eloquent speech, praising President Wilson and declaring he would work for the success of the ticket. His speech was interrupted time and again by applause as he drove home telling points.

The nominations for President began at 10:14. Alabama yielded to New Jersey, and John W. Wescott arose amid a storm of applause. He placed in nomination Woodrow Wilson. His speech was one of the most eloquent ever heard in a convention. At the close when he mentioned the name of Wilson there was a great outburst of applause that could not be controlled. The demonstration was participated in by the delegates and spectators alike. Former Governor Harmon, of Ohio, seconded the nomination of Wilson, as did Gov. Stuart, of Virginia. The nomination was then made by acclamation.

The nomination of Thomas Marshall, of Indiana, for Vice President by Senator Kern, of Indiana, quickly followed.

ACTING GOVERNOR USES PARDON POWER FREELY

Nine Men Are Set Free and Two Are Restored To Citizenship.

Frankfort, Ky., June 17.—Morton T. Wilhoit, of Louisville, convicted in July, 1915, on the charge of shooting and wounding and sentenced to the penitentiary for one year, was pardoned by Acting Gov. Combs. Wilhoit has been a trustee at the penitentiary, acting as chauffeur for Warden Wells.

Harry Blankenship, of Pike county, convicted for manslaughter and given a two to twenty-one years' penitentiary sentence, was pardoned. Blankenship was charged with killing Albert Worford, who was employed by him to sell produce from his farm at a mine located near J. M. Robertson, Circuit Judge of Pike county, recommended the pardon. Nine of the jurors sitting in the case also joined in the request for the pardon.

Other pardons granted were: Howard Simpson, of Fayette county, convicted at the January term, 1916, for manslaughter and given a twelve years' penitentiary sentence; Thomas Murray, Fayette county, convicted on the charge of robbery and sent to the penitentiary for two years; Owen Stephens, convicted of the same offense and given the same punishment.

Chester Bridwell, of Webster, convicted for assault on a girl under 16 years old; and given an eighteen months' penitentiary sentence, was pardoned.

Judge C. E. Booze, of this city, convicted defaulting clerk in the Auditor's office, was pardoned. He presented petitions from thirty-seven counties. He was convicted of taking $40,000 belonging to the State but has been on parole for four years.

Pierce Gabbard, of Breathitt county, and Nelson Burch, of Fayette county, both serving sentences for manslaughter, were pardoned.

Thomas B. Blantin, of Harlan county and Nelson Messer, of Fayette county, who served terms for manslaughter, were restored to citizenship.

"AMERICA OVER ALL" CRY THE GERMAN CATHOLICS

Racine, Wis., June 17.—"America over all the world." This is the motto adopted by the German Catholic Societies of Wisconsin, at the closing session of the convention here. The declaration of principles as passed by the convention follows: "We declare our love and fidelity, as well as unwavering loyalty to these United States and their institutions, the land in which many of us were born, and to which the other members of our society have wholeheartedly and unreservedly sworn allegiance, and to which oath they have been, are and will be true. Although of German extraction, still our motto is "America ueber alles, ueber alles in der Welt" (America over all, over all in the world).

"We affirm our loyalty to our glorious Union, but resent every malicious attack on our rights as citizens as unjust and undeserved, and stand for strict neutrality, without preference for any of the warring nations."

TWO VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES NEIGHBORS

Indianapolis, Ind., June 19.—For the first time in the history of American politics the candidates for the Vice Presidency of both the Democratic and Republican parties are from the same city, Indianapolis. Vice President Marshall, who was renominated by acclamation at the St. Louis convention, and Charles Warren Fairbanks, who was named by the Chicago convention, despite their differences politically, are warm personal friends of long standing. Among the first to congratulate Mr. Fairbanks on his nomination was Mr. Marshall, and the Republican nominee sent his congratulations to the Vice President.

Another coincidence is the fact that both have held the office for which they are now candidates. Mr. Fairbanks having been Vice President from 1904 to 1908, when Col. Roosevelt was President.

Mr. Fairbanks has been a resident of Indianapolis since the early 70's, while Mr. Marshall did not come to Indianapolis until he became Governor in 1908. He formerly lived at Columbia City, Ind. The homes of the two men here are only a few blocks apart.

Both Mr. Fairbanks and Mr. Marshall are ready to enter upon their campaigns as soon as they have been officially notified of their nominations. The dates for the notifications have not yet been fixed.

HUNG JURY IN ADKINS TRIAL AT HAWESVILLE

Hawesville, Ky., June 17.—Circuit Court closed here to-day after a six-days session, the longest term held for many years. E. B. Adkins was given a sentence of two years in the penitentiary on the charge of forgery and Roy Pryor received the same sentence for housebreaking. Both pleaded guilty.

Chief interest centered in the trial of the $5,000 damage suit of Mrs. Kate Adkins against Lon Adkins for the shooting to death of her husband, Frank Adkins, son of Lon, on a Sunday afternoon last June at the father's home near here. The widow and her five small children were within the bar during the trial.

The jury was unable to agree on a verdict and were discharged at 6 o'clock by Judge Slack.

RABIES VERY COSTLY—FARMER LOSES HEAVILY

Paris, Ky., June 16.—A mad dog caused a heavy loss to Volney Ferguson, a farmer, living near Centerville, this county. A number of animals were bitten and were confined until it could be determined whether they should be killed. Yesterday they will develop symptoms of rabies and were destroyed. Among the animals killed were a $300 horse, a fine cow, calf, dog and two cats.

Harry Spinks Ferguson, 3-year-old grandson of Mr. Ferguson, was scratched by a pup which had been exposed to the mad dog and the little fellow is being treated with antitoxin. So far he shows no infection.

The "White Folks" Party.

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 16.—Congressman Heflin amused the crowd with a story.

"An old negro in Washington the other day," said he, "asked: 'Who did the Republicans nominate?'"

"Mr. Hughes," he was told.

"'Yas se'r,' said the negro, 'Who do you suppose de white folks will nominate?'"

The Southern delegates led the roar of laughter.

The recent ruling of the Court of Appeals holding that a second good roads bond issue in Bell county is invalid may halt road construction in that county, as only enough of the first road bond issue is left to meet current labor bills.

WAR WITH MEXICO SEEMS AT HAND

Punitive Force Crosses, Chasing Bandits.

CARRANZA ISSUES ULTIMATUM

Order To Resist Any Further Pursuit Across Line Viewed Seriously.

THE RESULT OF ANOTHER RAID

Brownsville, Tex., June 17.—Carranza Consul J. Z. Garza, stationed here, delivered early to-night General Alfredo Ricaut's ultimatum to General James Parker, Brownsville commander, that unless the Anderson punitive expedition was withdrawn an attack would be made by Carranza troops. Immediately afterward Consul Garza closed the Consulate and moved to Matamoros.

Additional United States troops, including a portion of the Twenty-eighth Infantry and the remainder of the Third Cavalry, under command of Colonel A. P. Blockson, are en route to Naranjos, the point of crossing of a squadron of the Third Cavalry into Mexico to reinforce those already sent in.

Fifteen hundred men, boys and girls to-night patrolled the streets of Matamoros, bearing arms that had been distributed by General Ricaut.

"Anticipates Fighting."

Washington, June 17.—Although the War Department had no report to-night on developments beyond the border at Brownsville, a dispatch came through from General Funston telling of the raid of 30 bandits near San Benito, Texas, and of the crossing of troops into Mexico to pursue the raiders.

General Funston added: "I anticipate fighting."

After a conference to-night with President Wilson, Secretary Baker said he had ordered no additional troops to the border and that General Pershing had asked for no reinforcements.

After he left the White House Secretary Baker went into conference with Major General Scott, Chief of Staff, at the War Department, and later Major General Bliss, Assistant Chief of Staff, and Brigadier General Mills, Chief of the Militia Division, were summoned. The presence of General Mills was taken as confirmation that one of the first steps to meet the threatened clash would be a mobilization of more National Guardsmen at the border.

Pursuing Outlaws.

San Antonio, Tex., June 17.—A force of 350 troopers of the Third Cavalry, under command of Major Edward Anderson, have pursued Mexican bandits across the Rio Grande at Naranjos and up the river to a point near Matamoros.

Major Anderson is sticking to the trail of the bandits in spite of the imminent danger of attack by Carranzista soldiers from the Matamoros garrison.

Brigadier General James Parker, in command of the Brownsville section of the border guard, notified Mexican Consul Garza at Brownsville late this afternoon that the international boundary had been crossed. Garza replied with expressions of regret and apprehension that this new invasion of Mexican soil would lead to a clash with troops of the de facto Government.

Before the arrival of Major Newman's squadrons, Troop H, under Lieutenant A. D. Newman, overtook a part of the bandits below the river and engaged them in a running fight. So far as is known, either at Brownsville or here, no one was killed on either side and no American was wounded.

County Judge Indicted.

Princeton, Ky., June 17.—The grand jury which has been in session here for the past week adjourned yesterday afternoon after having returned a number of indictments, among them being one against County Judge M. P. Smith and one against Tom Hayden, a Democratic worker, in connection with the purging of last fall's registration, when the names of a number of negroes were stricken from the registration

THE FARMERS HAD A SPLENDID TRIP

Through Sections Of Eastern Kentucky.

A "HAYSEED'S" ACCOUNT OF IT

They Passed Through Regions Of Vast Beauty and Agricultural Production.

THE HALF HAS NOT BEEN TOLD

Hartford, Ky., June 14, 1916.

On June 6 the delegation of farmers from Ohio county to the second Annual Farmers' Meet left for Louisville, where they met the farmers' special, composed of fifteen Pullman sleepers for the accommodation of the great crowd. Our delegation was composed of the following: Mr. Lindley and Mr. Bell, two of the best stockmen and farmers of the Point section on Green river; Mr. Kittinger, a prosperous merchant and farmer of Matanzas; Mr. Everly, a successful merchant and fancy tobacco grower of Smallhouse, and Mr. Albert Cox, a small farmer of the Hall's creek section, near Dundee, led by our very efficient County Agent, Mr. Browder. Lest I forget, I want to say that the work of Mr. Browder is bearing fruit and if all the farmers of this county would follow his teachings, the desert places would soon blossom as the rose.

On the 7th we took the Farmers' Special for Lexington. Arrived there, we were taken at once to the grounds of the State University and Experiment Station, where we inspected the wonders of wonderland until noon. The Station grounds, with a guide to explain the "why" of it, is an education of itself to the man who wants to learn and if any one left without being benefited, it was his fault or misfortune.

At the noon hour we were invited to the armory where we were treated to a good lunch at the expense of the State University, after which we had a few short talks by officials of the institution. Next we went to the interurban line where a great string of cars were waiting to take us to Versailles, in Woodford county, the heart of the Blue Grass. Arrived there we found the streets crowded with automobiles waiting to carry us over the wonderful pike roads to some of the notable farms of the county. We visited the princely estate of Senator Camden, where we were received like lords by the Senator and his good wife and treated to cigars and shown his fine horses and wonderful gardens, greenhouses and pleasure grounds. While being led by a fairy through the great panorama of artificial lakes, bubbling fountains and flowers of intoxicating beauty, we were made to think of the Arabian Knights and the wonderful fairy stories of long ago, that we always thought mere fancy but now are inclined to believe much of it was founded on facts, for seeing is believing.

Next we were taken to Forest Home Farm, the home of the greatest herd of Duroc hogs in the world owned by the McKee Bros. Please pardon me for putting the hogs first, for my mind was on the hogs and I could not help it. If Jim McKee could preach the gospel as forcefully as he can talk hogs and hog comfort, he could convert the world in a short time.

Next we were taken to the Taylor estate, the home of the finest herd of Hereford cattle in the world, where we were shown everything in the way of a Hereford, from a twelve-thousand-dollar bull to a five-hundred-dollar suckling calf, and to say they were all perfection from the ground up, would be a poor description. We were next driven past waving fields of wheat, rye and barley to Midway, a lovely little city of note, being midway between Lexington and Frankfort and the home of the Kentucky Female Orphan School. We were then driven over and past many other fine estates worthy of mention, but space forbids. Arriving at Versailles we were driven to the High School where we were given a grand reception, supper and tickets to a very entertaining lecture by Dr. Barker.

As the hour was late and the best of friends must part, we boarded the interurban cars for Lexington, feeling tired but very proud of the people of Versailles and Woodford county. Arriving at Lexington we repaired to our sleepers and fell into the arms of Morpheus, thinking of the day just past. We awoke on the morning of the 8th at Falmouth, the beautiful county seat of Pendleton, county, where we were met by a committee to show us where to find the things so essential to supply the cravings of a hungry man. After we had breakfasted the automobiles began to roll up to whirl us across the wonderful hills and along the fertile valleys of the northern section of Pendleton county. We made a short stop at Butler, a beautiful little city nestled among the verdant hills. The city was decorated in our honor with flags, flowers, sweet clover and many other things that looked sweet to us, but my wife being a married woman and may read this article, I will not call any names, but the boys in the crowd know what I mean. We had a few short speeches by such notables as Lieut. Gov. Black and others.

We were driven over many majestic hills covered from base to summit with alfalfa and sweet clover, while the busy bee could be heard on all sides humming his homely song as he gathered honey from the sweet clover for the use of mankind. We visited the dairy farm of A. L. Caldwell and spent some time in looking over his herd of milking Holsteins. They are beauties to say the least of them. We next stopped at the farm of G. F. Barnard and looked over his herd of Shorthorns and found them all to be beauties from the ground up. We then took a long run into Falmouth, our starting point, where we found a great dinner awaiting us. I have tried to think of words to describe that dinner but my vocabulary is inadequate. That dinner and the ones who served it will be a bright spot in my memory while life endures. In the afternoon we were taken on a run through the southern part of the county, but as the time was short and light showers of rain falling at short intervals, we made only one stop and that was at Morgan, a lovely little village on the bluffs of the Licking river.

After leaving Morgan we drove into Falmouth past many fields of alfalfa and sweet clover and we could see herds of cattle and flocks of sheep grazing on the distant hills. Arriving again at Falmouth and given time to rest and get supper, we were taken to a big tobacco factory where we were greeted by a large crowd and entertained with music by a brass band and by short speeches by Commissioner of Agriculture Mat Cohen and other notables of the Agriculture Extension Department. We then repaired to our sleepers to dream of all the fine things we had seen. Arrived at Louisville at 6 o'clock on the 9th. After breakfast we were invited to the Young Men's Christian Association building and given the run of said building until time to start to the country. The time seemed short until the streets were crowded with automobiles to take us over the fine country south of the city. We were first driven through Cherokee Park, which is unsurpassed for its splendid driveways and lovely scenery. From the park we were taken to the open country where we visited the great market garden section, which is a wonder to behold. We were then driven by great fields of wheat and barley to some of the great Duroc farms of the county near Jefferson and St. Matthews. We made a stop at St. Matthews, where we were entertained for a short while by the citizens, but as time seemed to be passing very fast, many of the stops were cut out. We made a run to Lakeland but made no stop. We were taken around through the grounds of the asylum and were able to see many of the beauties of the institution as we were whirled along. The next run was made along to Louisville, as the time was too short for any more stops. Arrived in the city at 2 p.m. and found a great dinner awaiting us at the Bourbon Stock Yards. After dinner we were made to feel at home and given the run of the stock yards which is good showing of itself to a hayseed. As night approached we were assembled at Fourth and Broadway where arrangements were made for special cars to take us to Fontaine Ferry Park, where we were served with a Dutch supper and given tickets for the show at the Park Theater. Then ended the greatest series of entertainments the farmers of Kentucky have ever known.

I have tried in my feeble way to give a true description of this great trip, but this article is growing too long for my share, and yet the "half has not been told." I desire to thank every one who in any way contributed to our pleasure on this trip, but I feel that I am unable to express half the gratitude I feel. I want to say to the credit of the farmers, some 500 or more, that out of all that number there was but one man who at any time showed the least symptoms of intoxication on the trip from Falmouth to Louisville. One man in car No. 8 made a fool of himself and awoke everyone in the car, but after close investigation it was learned that he was not a farmer but a fertilizer salesman. Many errors may appear in this article. If so, charge them to my head and not my heart and let it go at that. As ever yours, one of many,

HAYSEED.

THE PRESENT WAR MOST EXPENSIVE EVER KNOWN

Paris, June 16.—Wars cost Europe from the beginning of the nineteenth century up to August, 1914, about sixty-five billion francs, or not half of what the belligerent powers have already expended during the present conflict, according to statistics compiled by Edmond Thery, the French economist, and published in an article written to indicate the progression of the cost of war.

The 15 years of war waged by Napoleon increased the public debt of France by 588,000,000 francs, while the Crimean War alone cost the republic 1,660,000,000, according to Thery. Great Britain spent 1,550,000,000 in the Crimean, while that war cost Austria 343,000,000 and Turkey and Sardinia together 642,000,000 francs. France spent 650,000,000 francs on the Mexican War, he says, and 853,000,000 in the conflict against Austria for the liberation of Italy.

Prussia, in her wars against Denmark and Austria, spent about two billion francs, while the German States and France together spent about fifteen billion on the war of 1870, including 5,000,000,000 francs indemnity paid by France to Germany. The war of 1877-78 against Turkey cost Russia 2,700,000,000 francs, while she spent 6,300,000,000 in the war with Japan, as against 4,500,000,000 spent by Japan.

Bilious Attacks.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

May Find Jobs.

It is estimated that nearly 125 boys and young men residing within a radius of ten miles of Guthrie have found employment during the last few weeks at Burgettstown, Pa., with the American Acid and Chemical Company, at wages ranging from $2.50 a day for the commonest labor on up. The war has made the demand for the chemicals manufactured by this concern unprecedented and the great demand for labor in the big steel district of Pennsylvania has made it necessary for the company to look to other sections for help. These chemicals are non-explosive, and the effect of the war in increasing the demand for them has been due to decreased imports from the warring countries.

DELEGATE RENOUNCES ALLEGIANCE TO MOOSE

Dallas, Tex., June 13.—Judge F. M. Etheridge, of Dallas, a delegate to the National Progressive Convention at Chicago, returned here tonight and in a statement renounced allegiance to the Progressive party, declaring his intention of supporting the national Democratic ticket as against Charles E. Hughes, Republican Presidential nominee. Judge Etheridge was the Progressive candidate for Governor of Texas in 1914.

KENTUCKY DAY AT CONVENTION

When Senator James Delivers Big Speech.

MADE PERMANENT CHAIRMAN

Of National Democratic Gathering Where Harmony Was Also Permanent Feature.

A GREAT ORATORICAL EFFORT

St. Louis, Mo., June 15.—This is Kentucky day at the Democratic National Convention. From the moment the convention began its second session at 11 o'clock this morning, Kentucky, through her enthusiastic delegates, was "the whole thing."

Senator Ollie M. James received a tremendous ovation when Temporary Chairman Glynn yielded the gavel to the big Kentuckian, and it was made clearly manifest how close Ollie James is to the hearts of the Democrats of the nation when every delegate in the Coliseum rose to acclaim him and indorse his selection as the presiding officer of the convention.

So enthusiastic were the delegates when Senator James took his place as presiding officer and rose to deliver his speech, which was generally accepted as a personal message to the assembled delegates from the President of the United States, that they went wild. There were cries from all over the convention hall of "James for President in 1920," and "Hurrah for James of Kentucky."

Senator James was never in better form for the important role expected of him, and as he drove home point after point in his masterful effort, he aroused the enthusiasm of the body to the highest pitch. His eloquent tribute to President Wilson and the remarkable achievements of the nation's Chief Executive were signals for rousing and repeated demonstrations, in which every State took part, with Old Kentucky in the lead.

It was the generally expressed opinion that this was the greatest oratorical effort of the big Kentuckian's career, and those who heard it will long remember his appealing message and the lasting impression it made upon the assembled hosts of the party gathered here to renew their confidence in the great leader who now sits in the White House—Woodrow Wilson.

Another high honor was given Kentucky when Gov. A. O. Stanley was appointed a member of the subcommittee of nine to draft the Democratic platform. The honor came entirely unsolicited to Gov. Stanley and he had no inkling of the appointment until it was announced by Senator Stone, of Missouri, the chairman of the Resolutions Committee. Gov. Stanley at once went into session with the sub-committee, which will report to the full committee at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

When the report of the Committee on Permanent Organization was made to the National Convention designating Senator James as permanent chairman, the delegates loudly cheered the selection. Norman E. Mack, of New York; Gov. Stuart, of California, were named as the committee to escort Senator James to the platform. As they appeared on the platform with the big Kentuckians the band struck up "My Old Kentucky Home" and the delegates cheered wildly.

J. Bruce Kremer, formerly of Louisville, but now of Montana, was designated permanent secretary of the convention.

ARMY BILL AND CITIZEN SOLDIER

Government Pay for the Militia Is Provided.

MILITIA NOW OF THREE PARTS

How the National Guard Will Be Organized Under the New Plan.

MORE ENLISTMENTS PROBABLE

The army bill recently passed by Congress and signed by the President provides for the first time in history for Federal pay for the "citizen soldier." Under this bill the "militia of the United States" is divided into three parts. First, the National Guard, consisting of all the enlisted militia organized and equipped as a land force. Second, the Naval Militia, and third, unorganized militia.

The number of the National Guard to be organized in each State under the bill within one year is fixed at 200 for each Congressman and Senator, which makes Kentucky's quota 2,600, about 300 more than its present paper strength. This number is to be increased 50 per cent. each year until the number has reached 500 for each Senator and Representative in Congress. On the basis of its population, Louisville should furnish now about 800 men and in five years about 2,000.

The period of enlistment is fixed at six years, three years of which shall be in an active organization and three years in the National Guard Reserve.

Men at present enlisted in the Kentucky National Guard are recognized as members of the National Guard under the new act for the unexpired portions of their present enlistment. Commissioned officers of the present National Guard continue in office provided they take the prescribed oath. An examination as to physical, moral and professional fitness is required of all commissioned officers. Only those who have received military training in the army, navy, marine corps, National Guard, or accredited schools where military science is taught, are eligible as commissioned officers.

The equipment, organization, discipline and training is required to be the same as that of the regular army.

Pay is provided for enlisted men at the rate of one-fourth the pay of an enlisted man in the regular army, but not to exceed $120 per year to any one man. This would make the monthly pay of enlisted men of the National Guard range about as follows: Privates, first-class, $4.50; privates and buglers, $3.75; corporals, $5.50; sergeants, $7.50; first sergeants, $11.25; musicians (band) $6 to $7.50.

To draw the full authorized pay each enlisted man must attend forty-eight drills per year; he may receive pay with deductions for absences for a less number, provided he attend not less than twenty-four.

As the average number of drills will be about one per week of not less than one and one-half hours' duration, the enlisted men will be well compensated. This should result in an increased enlistment.

The July Woman's Home Companion.

The July Woman's Home Companion contains clever short stories and articles on timely subjects. There are also several serials and a wide variety of material in the regular departments.

The special articles include "It's the Prettiest Street in Town," by Frank A. Waugh, who teaches a much needed lesson in civic improvement, "Peace at Any Price," by Earl Harrison, who discusses the arguments of the pacifists in an original manner, "Why We Are Not Divorced," "Little Business Gold Mines," "Fashions in Appetites" and many others.

The section on cooking is conducted by Cora Farmer Perkins. The section for younger readers includes attractive drawings and verses by Olive Rush. Fashions are discussed by Grace Margaret Gould. The picture section, printed by the Alco Gravure process, and including the result of the prize photographic contest entitled "Life on the Farm," is better than ever.

JAMES R. KEENE ESTATE
WORTH OVER $1,000,000

Mesola, N. Y., June 16.—James R. Keene, sportsman and banker, who died at Cedarhurst, Long Island, in January, 1913, left an estate with a net taxable value in this State of $1,062,539, according to a transfer tax appraisal filed here. The widow, Sara Jay Keene, is the sole beneficiary.

Blooded horses at Kingston Farms, Lexington, Ky., having a total value of $332,124, but which are not taxable in this State, are listed in the appraisal.

Provisionary notes amounting to $75,000, due Mr. Keene, now have been outlawed, according to the appraisal. Among them is one for $10,000, given by David Lamar, who now is serving a term at Atlanta, on a charge of impersonating an officer of the United States Government.

CAPTURE MOONSHINER AFTER 30 YEARS SEARCH

Deputy Collector A. D. Wells and two possemen raided a moonshine still in Morgan county, captured Gus Vance, an old offender, and one that Government authorities have been hunting thirty years. This was one of the largest outfits ever captured in Eastern Kentucky and was in operation at the time of capture.

Added to the pay-roll besides these are the thirty-five Circuit Judges and thirty-five Commonwealth's Attorneys, who bring the number of employees up to 1,970 and the pay-roll to $1,536,553.03.

White Slavery and War.

"Just before this war we were working ourselves up about 'White Slavery,'" says Earle Harrison in the July Woman's Home Companion. "The loss of only one pure girl was given pages of space in the newspapers. But imagine your country attacked from outside; put half a dozen drunken foreign soldiers in your house, and the loss of your own daughter will be such a small incident that nobody will notice it—except you."

Unusual Record.

An Aberdeen Angus cow, owned by C. R. Hammon, near town, has a most remarkable record, and it is doubtful if it can be beaten in the State. This cow was calved April 19, 1911. On May 15, 1912, she gave birth to her first calf. She has now at her side her sixth calf, having calved twins on June 1. [Lebanon Enterprise.]

ROOSEVELT MEETS WITH PROGRESSIVE LEADERS

Members Of the Party Are Urged To Wait Until Committee Meets.

New York, June 15.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt had a conference here with George W. Perkins, Gov. Hiram Johnson, Oscar S. Straus and Chester H. Rowell, of California, to discuss the future course of the Progressive party. His tentative refusal of the Presidential nomination and the advisability of having someone else named in his stead as a candidate by the National Executive Committee of the party, were considered.

Col. Roosevelt would not talk for publication on what took place at the conference, but Mr. Perkins issued the following statement:

"All members of the Progressive party and its organization should remember that at the close of the Progressive convention in Chicago a meeting of the National Committee was called to be held in Chicago, June 26, a week from next Monday. This will be after the Democratic convention at St. Louis, and the result of that convention will be known.

"Sufficient time will have elapsed after the Progressive, Republican and Democratic conventions to allow our committeemen in each of the States to learn in a general way the public sentiment in each State and to bring this information to the meeting of our committee. The action which will then be taken by our committee, on June 26, should be awaited by Progressives as individuals and by the various local and State organizations. No action should be taken by individual Progressives or by the various organizations until the action of the National Committee has been made public."

Mr. Perkins said that this message, in substance, had been sent by telegraph to the members of the National Committee and to the State chairman.

In the July American Magazine is an interesting article by Merle Crowell about "Uncle John" Brashears, astronomer and scientist, considered by Charles M. Schwab to be the most wonderful man he has ever met. There are a number of other articles on timely subjects, and an unusually good assortment of fiction.

Among the special articles is one entitled "How I Made Them Hire Me" by an anonymous writer who tells how he secured a ten-thousand-dollar job after he was down and out at forty-two. This is one of the series entitled "Your Hidden Powers and Some of the Keys to Unlock Them."

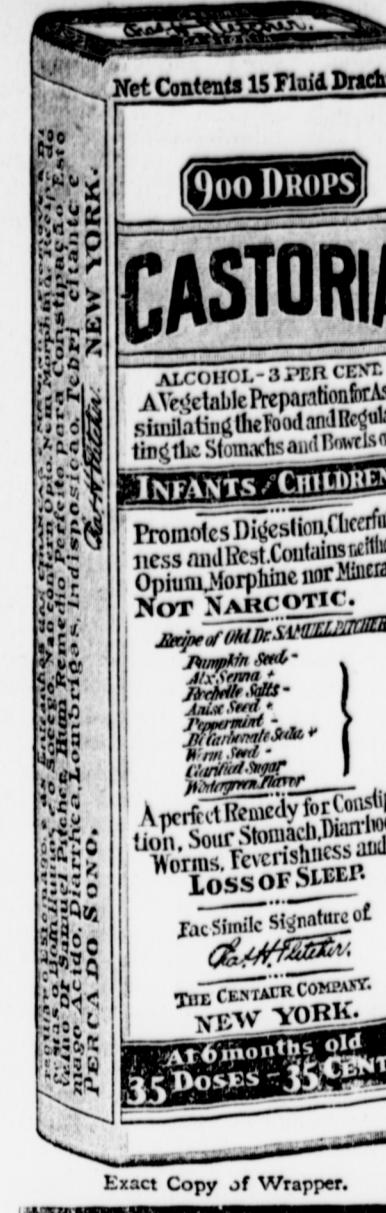

The department on Interesting People includes an unusual sketch of John Hays Hammond and his son. The results of the contest on will power and the department on "The Family's Money" contain several short articles of practical interest.

Just before the Republican and Bull Moose national conventions Col. Roosevelt was quoted as saying: "There isn't any difference between Wilson and Hughes that a barber couldn't remove in ten minutes." Let Teddy go ahead and endorse the candidacy of Mr. Hughes and then let the barber get busy.

The "Messenger" is the name of a new paper started at Madisonville by Will T. Mills, C. C. Givens, Jr., Sloan Givens and A. C. Bailey. It will be issued twice a week, featuring the local news. The first issue presents a very neat and attractive appearance, with all the modern touches of newspaperdom. It will no doubt merit and meet a generous patronage.

Col. Teddy Roosevelt is still pussyfooting around to find an easy corner in which to stand and has not yet endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Hughes. Perhaps the most remarkable event in all his career happened last week. A small army of newspaper reporters and camera men went to interview him and he absolutely refused to have his picture taken. Just think of it! Something he never did before. He certainly must be reduced to hard straits to refuse the enticements of the photo film. Soon, it seems, there will be none to do him political honor.

"Why did you not put legislation of this character on the statute books when you were in power?" asked Representative Hensley, of Missouri, of the Republican membership of the House in a recent speech upon the rural credits bill. "It was needed then as badly as it is needed now, but you refused to respond to the people's demand. You were either not concerned about the needs of this great body of people—the farmers of America—whom this legislation is intended to aid, or you were willing to see the money changers gouge them to the extent of millions annually."

It is said that a new exterminator has been found for the English sparrow and it is nothing more than the crude oil which is spread to lay the dust of streets. The aforesaid sparrow must have his dust bath, but oiled streets are not to his liking and he goes to the country. The sparrow hen gets oil on her feet and this, coming in contact with her eggs in the nest, prevent them from hatching. Under this new (and said to be true) theory, it would seem that that no town is better prepared to fight the sparrow, the house fly and the mosquito than Hartford, with oil just a few miles away.

And this time, at Chicago, the Elephant walked all around over the Bull Moose, flattening him out completely. It is even intimated that the Moose hide won't hold the "shucks!" that were ejaculated when Teddy flung the nomination of his followers in their teeth and refused to accept the honors that were so hilariously heaped upon him. Who was it said that politics was a son-of-a-gun—or a son of something else? Anyhow, maybe the Teddy men can give a better definition of the game now than before. And nobody is to be blamed more than their worshiped Chief.

Not for many years have farmers gotten such good prices for the products of their work as in the present times. If good prices do not mean prosperity, what do they mean? Isn't there a wide difference between the present times and other days? True, the word has gone out from Republican headquarters that all adherents to the faith must try hard times and low wages, in order to discredit the administration of President Wilson, but who can deny the facts when they are so plainly shown? Can't you remember the time under Republican administration when you couldn't even get your own money out of the bank?

It looks now like that term "Americanism" is going to be run out of the dictionary and into the ground, or somewhere else where it will be shorn of its real meaning except as understood by certain politicians. There is nobody in these United States who believes more in Americanism in its true sense, or has practiced it more during his whole life—and especially the past few years—than Woodrow Wilson. And now comes Mr. Hughes, the Republican candidate for President, with the announcement that he stands for "pure, unadulterated Americanism," and proclaims it as the issue of the campaign. There seems to be this difference between the two men—President Wilson practices Americanism in his every public word and act, while Mr. Hughes uses the word to juggle with.

The coming Presidential campaign seems destined to be devoid of the pyrotechnics and drum-beating which usually accompany such demonstrations for the benefit of the voters. Both candidates for President are pretty much of the same temperament and indications are that it will be a clean campaign. Patriotism will be aroused to high pitch—but we are all Americans and probably neither candidate will be able to say anything along this line that cannot be endorsed by the other. As for American traditions and honor, President Wilson has shown what he can and will do. Mr. Hughes is merely promising.

The State Board of Equalization has sent a letter to the assessors of Kentucky, calling their attention to the requirements of the law and the manner in which tax lists should be taken. Co-incidentally, this is a matter which The Herald has discussed quite a few times. We have contended for years that we believed the frequently lax methods employed by assessors or their assistants had much to do with our tax troubles. The man who takes the lists should make it a rather personal matter and see that he gets all that is taxable. In the assessors of Kentucky rests the power to greatly ameliorate our tax vexations and offend nobody in so doing.

DUNDEE.

June 19.—Mr. Rosco Hardin, wife and two little children—one a baby in its mother's arms—were in a buggy here Sunday evening and in passing a motorcycle the horse scared and ran away, turning the buggy over and throwing the occupants out near Dr. Duff's gate. Mr. Hardin and his wife sustained several bruises, but not of a serious nature. Neither child was hurt enough to cry. The buggy was torn up considerably.

GIRL CONFESSES SHE HID BABY IN SHOE BOX

Evansville, Ind., June 17.—The arrest of Nellie Bowling, a pretty eighteen-year-old girl, at Nortonville, Ky., is believed to have solved the mystery of the finding early this morning of a three-weeks-old babe in a shoe box on a bench in the ward of Mrs. John Bender in this city. The authorities of Nortonville said over long-distance telephone that the girl admitted that she had left her nameless child here. The family of Miss Bowling lives five miles from Nortonville.

Thirty-Five Applicants.

There were 35 applicants for teacher's certificates at the examination at Fordsville last Friday and Saturday. The Board is composed of Supt. Ozna Shultz, Ronda Wade and C. E. Allen. The grading of the papers will not be completed before the last of this week.

PARTY PLATFORM IS RINGING ONE

Includes Plank Favoring Woman Suffrage,

WHICH CREATED SOME FURORE

President Wilson's Ideas On Americanism Were Included Amidst Much Applause.

MEXICAN POLICY IS ENDORSED

St. Louis, June 16.—The Democratic national convention finished its work to-day by adopting the party platform exactly as approved by President Wilson and submitted by the resolutions committee, including a plank on Americanism and that favoring woman suffrage, but not until the harmony of its three days session had been disturbed with a row over the suffrage plank.

No voice was raised against the vigorous declarations of the Americanism plank, but at one time it looked as if the suffrage plank had been lost. After Senator Walsh, of Montana, had told the convention the President himself considered it vital to party success, however, it was voted into the platform by a ballot of 888½ to 181½. The entire platform was then adopted without roll-call.

As it went into the platform the suffrage plank stands:

"We favor the extension of franchise to the women of this country, State by State, on the same terms as to men."

Women suffrage leaders considered it a much more favorable declaration than was gotten from the Republican convention. They threw all their force behind it, and won the support of the administration leaders.

Haggard and worn from the all-night session, the platform makers were not ready with the report until the afternoon when Senator Stone, sleepless for more than thirty hours, took the speaker's stand. He was so tired he surrendered reading the platform to Senators Walsh, of Montana, and Hollis, of New Hampshire.

The first applause given the platform was for the endorsement of the administration. The delegates gave close attention.

Endorsement of the tariff act was given general applause. The delegates seemed too wearied to interrupt with lengthy applause.

The much-discussed plank on Americanism drawn by President Wilson himself was next read. It was interrupted by handclapping. Its denunciation of conspirators for the advancement of foreign influence in this country was roundly applauded. The plank was intently followed. Its criticism of disloyalty by some Americans was loudly applauded. Excoriation of a political party that should receive such support received similar approval.

Close attention was given to the plank relating to foreign policies.

The Latin-American policy plank got some applause, but more greeted the Mexican plank and frequently interrupted its reading, especially the reaffirmation of the Monroe doctrine. The assertion that American troops should be kept in Mexico until danger of raids subsided was loudly applauded. The assertion that intervention is a "last resort" received applause, but generous approval was given to the endorsement of the President's attempt to prevent intervention.

The reading of the planks went on to scattered applause but when the plank declaring for an eight-hour day for federal employees, civil service pension, child labor and the general welfare planks were read, there were loud yells of "Hooray!"

When the woman suffrage plank was reached the galleries started a big demonstration. Prolonged cheering, applause and whistling followed its reading, emphasized by Senator Hollis. The suffrage plank got more of a demonstration from the men than it did from the women.

The peace plank was moderately applauded, as was that upon prison reforms.

Declarations for military preparedness were uniformly applauded.

The reading of the report was concluded at 1:20, and Senator Stone moved its adoption.

MEXICANS ARE HACKED TO PIECES BY INDIANS

Douglas, Ariz., June 17.—At least a score of bands of Yaqui Indians are operating along the Sonora river, about 100 miles south of the border, according to Americans arriving here.

Within the last two weeks one band led by a renegade Mexican, known as Huaro, is said to have murdered eight Mexicans in the vicinity of Huepac. Four were slowly hacked to pieces with knives and others burned, it was declared.

The little towns in the southern part of the Montezuma and Arizpe districts are begging for soldiers, but thus far little attention has been paid to them.

People from the southern part of the State are pouring into the larger towns in the two districts, abandoning everything. Renewed reports of Yaqui activity in the northern part of the Alamos district appear to indicate the failure of the campaign of the de facto troops in Southern Sonora.

WHOLESALE GROCERS CONDEMN PARCELS POST

Boston, June 17.—The parcel post system as operated to-day is building up corporations that in a few years will overshadow the largest trusts of the present time; is the opinion of a committee of the National Wholesale Grocers' Association, which reported to-day at the closing session. "This growth of a few great corporations is at the expense of thousands of small country merchants," the report continues.

InTELLECTS TO CLASH IN COMING CAMPAIGN

Democrats To Call Upon Prize Orators Of Party To Combat Republicans.

St. Louis, June 17.—Democratic leaders looking forward to the campaign are virtually in accord that it will be marked with inspiring oratory, a clash of intellects between President Wilson and Mr. Hughes and markedly free from personalities.

None of the Democrats thinks of belittling the ability of Mr. Hughes as a campaigner. They have not forgotten his campaigns in New York, nor his speech in Youngstown, Ohio, in 1908, when he opened the fight for Mr. Taft. They also realize his physical fitness to go into a four-months campaign.

To meet Mr. Hughes and the Republican campaigners behind him they expect to call upon the best in the Democratic party. Whether he personally will go into the campaign will be decided by the President only, but it is probable that an effort will be made to get him to speak, for no matter how much the leaders may rely on other leading Democrats, they realize the weight of direct word of the President.

Democratic leaders recall that although there has been some argument against a President taking the stump in a campaign for re-election, precedents are not lacking. They pointed out that Mr. Taft made many trips throughout the East in the battle for convention delegates with Colonel Roosevelt, and that his appearance resulted in one of the most spectacular, personal and bitter campaigns in political history, during which the two candidates followed each other through State after State.

Nothing is further from their thoughts than a similar campaign, but Mr. Wilson will almost certainly be asked to contribute by some active participation, to offset any advantage the Republicans may gain from the speeches of a man who has been Governor of a most potential State and Justice of the Supreme Court.

RAILROAD EARNINGS FOR YEAR OVER $1,000,000,000

Washington, June 17.—More than $1,000,000,000 in operating income will be earned by the railways of the United States for the year ending this month. An Interstate Commerce Commission report to-day showed that during the ten months ending with April total operating revenues of the roads amounted to $2,797,817,962, indicating a total of approximately $3,360,000,000 by the end of the fiscal year, and operating expenses were $1,827,816,088, indicating a total of about $2,208,000,000 for the year. Net revenue from railway operations during the ten months was $970,001,082, but deductions for tax accruals and uncollectible revenues brought the recorded operating income to $848,542,135.

Operating income per mile of road was $3,703 for the ten months, compared with $2,600 in the same period last year.

In the Eastern district the operating income per mile was $6,335, compared with $4,019 last year's period; in the Southern district $2,817, compared with $1,876, and in the Western district $2,783, compared with $2,180.

Slipper Bargains

We have gone through our stock of Misses' and Children's Slippers with a view to closing out all the odd sizes and styles, and to our surprise we find an accumulation larger than we anticipated. These slippers run in sizes from 5 to 1½, and are found in tan, black, white and velvet. None of these sold for less than 75¢, and some as high as $2.00. Now, we mean to close these out. Of course, we are losing on them, but why keep them?

Now, the story is this: You may need them, and the price is so you can buy them. Listen! All this week you will find them on the center table, and the price to you is An Apt Retort.

The Glasgow Times says:

A prominent Republican met a Democratic friend on the street the other day and said: "Well, when we Republicans were in power we were not forced to sell rags like we do now to get some money." "No," replied the Democratic friend, "while the Republicans were in power we had no money and were forced to wear our rags or stay off the street. Now we have plenty of money to buy new clothes and are selling our rags, which are the last vestige of Republican misrule and high tariff oppression. A return to Republican misrule means the return of empty pockets and the clothing of ourselves with rags."

The Republican friend moved along down the street, sadder but wiser.

SUGGESTIONS OF PEACE SCORNED

In Great Speech By German Chancellor.

HE DRAWS GRAPHIC PICTURE

Of the Heroes Suffering and Dying On Battlefield For Country's Sake.

ADmits PRESENT PRIVATIONS

Berlin, June 16.—A profound sensation has been caused by the great speech made here before the Reichstag by Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, in which he declared that any further suggestions of peace by Germany would be futile and evil.

His eloquent appeal to hold on until victory was theirs and the categorical defiance he hurled at England were greeted with thunders of applause. At the conclusion of his speech the Chancellor received a tremendous ovation, the cheering being renewed again and again.

All parties joined in the ovation with the exception of the Conservatives and the Socialists, who seconded with Dr. Liebknecht.

The Chancellor appealed for the unity of all parties, declaring that political lines ought to be obliterated during the prosecution of the war. The conclusion of his speech brought almost the entire house to their feet in a wild outburst of enthusiasm.

"I see the entire nation," he said, "in heroic stature fighting for its future, our sons and brothers fighting and dying side by side. There we see the equal love for home in all. The sacred flame of love of home steals every heart so that they defy death and suffer death in thousands. Only a heart completely dried up can escape the affecting impression of the great primitive strength of this people."

"My belief in my people and my love for my people gives me a conviction firm as a rock that we shall fight and conquer as we have fought and conquered hitherto. Our enemies wish to let it go on to the end. We fear neither death nor devil, not even the hunger devil which they wish to send into our country."

The men who fight out there around Verdun, who fight under Hindenburg, our proud bluejackets who showed Albion that rats bite, are fashioned from a breed that knows how to bear privations also. These privations are here. I admit it calmly and openly even to foreign countries, but we will bear them.

"In this fight against hunger we will also make progress. Gracious Heaven allowed a good harvest this year. It will not be worse, but better than in the previous hard year. This calculation of our enemies on our economic difficulties will prove to be deceptive.

"Another of their calculations was sharply corrected by our young navy last week. This victory will not make us boastful. We know that it does not mean that England is beaten. But it is a token of our

BEAVERS DAM A STREAM IN OLD FASHION STYLE

Reappearance Of Work Of Little Water Animals After Many Years.

The beaver, an animal that was supposed to have become extinct many years ago, has suddenly made its appearance in Hancock county by damming up Blackford creek, a stream of considerable size. Where they came from is a mystery, as one has not been seen in that section of the country in the last fifty years. But for the curiosity of a ten-year-old boy their discovery might not have been made.

Joe Wiles, a merchant and farmer, of the Chambers neighborhood, rented from his brother-in-law, Ira Chambers, a farm in the Blackford bottoms, which is seven miles south of Hawesville. Mr. Wiles decided to put the bottom land in corn and accordingly set to work to plow up the field. With him went his ten-year-old boy, who, hearing the roaring, made by the water running over something, determined to investigate.

Quietly slipping through the dense undergrowth, he made his way to the creek bank, thence up the creek a few hundred feet to the dam. Hurrying back to his father, he told an excited story of what he had seen, claiming to his father that someone had put a dam in the creek. Mr. Wiles decided to see what the boy had found, when to his astonishment he discovered a perfect dam across the creek five or six feet high and about forty feet long.

Willows had been cut along the creek by these industrious little fellows, woven together and plastered with mud in such a manner as to make the dam watertight. A mason could not have done a better job with a trowel. The dam is all new work, which shows that they have not been there any great length of time.

A drainage district has recently been established in this bottoms, but, as the new ditch will not go near the old creek at that place, the little beavers will not be disturbed, but will be watched with much interest.

She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."

MYSTERY MAKES TANLAC SECURE

Imitation Is Set at Defiance by the Famous Master Medicine.

Tanlac! There is magic in this household word—a magic made by success unprecedented and a fame based very solidly on its accomplishments in more than one million homes.

The ingredients for Tanlac are gathered in the remotest parts of the world. From the far North woods to Argentina, below the equator; in Russian Asia, the Alps, Pyrenees, on the sunny shores of Italy, from Brazil, Sumatra, Peru, the West Indies, and the slopes of our own timber-topped Rocky Mountains, come the roots, herbs, barks and even flowers that, under the direction of Herr Joseph Von Trimbach, the noted German chemist, are compounded into Tanlac.

There can be no successful imitation of Tanlac. It is compounded as skillfully and as mysteriously as nature distills the famed mineral waters of Europe.

Tanlac, now universally known as the Master Medicine, is proving invaluable against ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys, and catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes, which, when neglected, so often affect the vital organs themselves. As a general tonic for half sick, run-down men and women, it builds up the tissues, creates a keen appetite, promotes digestion, vitalizes the blood and brings back color to the cheeks and sparkle to the eyes.

Tanlac may now be obtained in Hartford at the Ohio County Drug Co., where it is being explained daily.

Tanlac may be obtained in the following nearby towns: Beaver Dam, Z. Wilbur Mitchell; Center-town, L. C. Morton & Son; McHenry, Williams Coal Co.; Ceravlo, C. R. Fulkerson; Cromwell, Wallace & Porter; Banock, Cook & Co.; Rockport, Harrell Bros.; Nelson, Nelson Creek Coal Co.; Livermore, J. F. Smith; Island, A. R. Pollock; Dundee, C. C. King; Fordsville, J. D. Cooper; Olaton, J. B. Canan. Advertisement

THE CHEAPEST THING IN THE WORLD—HUMAN LIFE

There has been a great naval battle in the North sea. At every hour of the day and night fighting and killing are going on upon the blood soaked continent of Europe. Other lands and climes are experiencing the horrors of war.

And the war offices of the various fighting nations joyfully proclaim to the public that their armies have gained a few yards or announce reluctantly that they have "retired" to new positions. The newspapers publish such gains or losses in great headlines.

But what of the lives that each trifling gain costs?

Take this battle in the North sea recently, for instance. Berlin and London are claiming and counter-claiming and denying losses of ships. Meanwhile between 15,000 and 20,000 men—young men with brains and brawn—have found watery graves.

And what is said about them? London and Berlin both regret, but it was a glorious victory, and so on.

The great tragedy of this war is that it has made human life the cheapest commodity in the world.

Most Powerful Light.

The most powerful searchlight in the world was tested at the Brooklyn Navy Yard last night. The lens has a diameter of five feet.

A watcher in a building a mile away reported that the light caused an electric lamp in his room to cast a shadow on the wall. The light was played on both towers of the Manhattan bridge and on the Woolworth Building. Persons near the Y. M. C. A. Building, two miles from the navy yard, said every stone was brilliantly lighted.

The light's effective range is estimated at 10 miles. Several may be ordered for use in the fortifications around New York.—[New York World.]

FRENCH GOVERNMENT BUYS KENTUCKY TOBACCO

New York, June 13.—What is said to be the largest tobacco transportation contract ever accepted here, was closed to-day when the Oriental Navigation Company agreed to carry 23,400,000 pounds from this port to France in July and August. The tobacco comes from Louisville, Ky., and will be shipped in hogsheads, of which there will be 15,000.

Charles Gouzelle, tobacco commissioner of the French Government, is the purchaser. The purchase is the result of a decision of the French war department to see that the men in the trenches receive all the tobacco desired, without being forced to depend on shipments from friends, relatives and various societies formed to supply them.

MINERS ARE TO DECIDE BY REFERENDUM VOTE

Tentative Proposal Of the Operators Will Be Voted On, June 22.

The Owensboro Inquirer of Friday says:

By the unanimous vote of the representatives of District No. 23, United Mine Workers of America, who have been in executive session here since Thursday afternoon at the city court room in this city, it was decided to take a referendum vote on Thursday, June 22, to decide whether or not the tentative proposition made to the mine workers at Louisville some weeks ago by the mine operators shall be accepted or rejected.

The matter was thoroughly discussed at the meeting held here, which came to an end at noon. Most of the representatives returned to their respective homes this afternoon.

The miners have been on a strike since May 15, and all but about 750 men out of 5,000 miners have been idle pending the adjustment of the controversy between the operators and miners. The four propositions submitted by the operators are as follows: To allow only two men in three rooms; manner of delivery of impurities to be loaded; to fix the price of short wall machine and the price of dead work.

The final result is now left to the rank and file of the organization. Every local union in the district will vote to accept or reject the proposition as submitted by the operators and approved by the international board. After the vote is taken and certified by three tellers to Herman Vincent, secretary, at Central City, the result will be announced. In the event a majority of votes are cast accepting the proposition, then the miners will return to work immediately, with the new scale adopted.

The union embraces a number of counties, and at the conference held in Owensboro a number of prominent officials connected with the mine workers union have been in attendance.
